OUTDOOR RESOURCES CONFERENCE SCHEDULED

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Campus Recreation Department will sponsor a three-day outdoor resources conference at the University Center beginning Monday, Oct. 22.

In conjunction with Campus Recreation's effort to establish an Outdoor Resources Center in room 119 of the University Center, several wilderness organizations, including the Sierra Club, the Friends of the Rattlesnake and the Defenders of Wildlife, will set up information tables in the UC Mall at 10 a.m. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday of this week.

The following programs will also be presented as part of the conference. All events will be held in Montana Rooms AB of the University Center.

On Monday at 8 p.m., representatives from the National Outdoor Leadership School will show slides as part of their graduate reunion.

On Tuesday at 7 p.m. the Wilderness Institute of the UM School of Forestry will sponsor a slide show and multi-media presentation on Senate Bill 393 -- the Montana Wilderness proposal. Also on Tuesday, Mike Chandler of the Back Country Horseman Association will hold a seminar at 7:30 p.m.

On Thursday the Wilderness Institute will sponsor a slide show entitled "Islands in Time" at 7 p.m., followed by a slide seminar on outdoor adventure education by Dudley Importa, campus recreation staff member and instructor of adventure ropes courses.
